

Privacy policy:

Processing of your personal data on the website

Personal privacy is important to us. We strive for a high level of data protection. In this policy, we explain how we collect and use personal data. You are always welcome to contact us if you have questions about how we process your personal data.

What is a personal data and what is a processing of personal data?

Personal data is all information about a living natural person that can be directly or indirectly linked to that person. It is not only about names and social security numbers, but also about, for example, pictures and e-mail addresses.

Processing of personal data is everything that happens with the personal data in the IT systems, regardless of whether it is about mobile devices or computers. This concerns, for example, collection, registration, structuring, storage, processing and transmission. In some cases, manual records may also be covered.

What personal data do we collect

We process your personal data on the website primarily to fulfill our obligations to you. Our starting point is not to process more personal data than is necessary. Collection of personal data could be to sign up for newsletters, when placing orders in the webshop or if there is a contact form on the page.

Our starting point is not to disclose your personal data to third parties if you have not consented to it or if it is not necessary to fulfill our obligations under contract or law.

What are your rights?

As a registered user, you have a number of rights under current legislation. You have the right to receive an extract that shows which personal data we have registered about you. You can request correction of incorrect data and in some cases deletion.

Personal data controller

Skipper Furniture AB (556404-2108) is responsible for personal data, which means that we are responsible for how your personal data is processed and that your rights are taken care of.
